Keynote Speaker

West Covina Councilman Ollie Cantos
Attorney, National Disability Rights Leader, and Multiple Presidential Appointee.

Ollie will share about his journey from the depths of despair as a bully victim to the highest corridors of power in Washington, DC. He will illustrate the fundamental role of high expectations on the lives of kids and adults with disabilities.

The first person with a disability in West Covina ever to be elected in the City's 100-year history, Ollie will share a message that promises both to inform and inspire!
